

The importance of the General Safety Regulation for the future of vehicle safety

Dinner debate hosted by Olga Sehnalová MEP

Wednesday 6 June 2018, 18.00 – 21:00

European Parliament, Salon Members' Restaurant

#SafetyAsStandard

Chair: David Ward, Towards Zero Foundation

- 18.00 Registration and welcome in the Members' Salon
- 18.15 Welcome by Olga Sehnalová MEP
Welcome by Herman de Croo, Minister of State and ETSC President
- 18.25 The European Commission Proposal for the revision of the General Safety Regulation and Pedestrian Safety Regulation
Peter Broertjes, European Commission, Automotive Unit, DG GROW
- 18.45 A regulation as important for saving lives as the seatbelt
Graziella Jost, ETSC Programme Director
- 19.00 Results of the Impact Assessment study
Richard Cuerden, TRL Academy, Director
- 19.25 Why Intelligent Speed Assistance (ISA) is a must Professor Oliver Carsten, Institute for Transport Studies, University of Leeds, UK
- 19.45 Contribution from the EU automotive suppliers Industry to the General Safety Regulation
Paolo Alburno, European Association of Automotive Suppliers (CLEPA), Technical Regulations Director
- 19.55 Questions and Answers
- 20.30 Concluding Remarks
Bart Boucké, Flemish Government, Mobility Department, 'Flemish Road Safety House'
Maxime Bureau, 3M Director Government Affairs for Europe
- 20.45 Drinks

The goal of iSAFER is to contribute to reducing speed-related road deaths and injuries across Europe with a special focus on Intelligent Speed Assistance (ISA), promoting its use at European and national level.

The project receives financial support from the Flemish Government, Fundación MAPFRE and 3M. etsc.eu/projects/isafer/ graziella.jost@etsc.eu.